

SEN/AEN Policy

Definition of SEN/AEN

SEN – Special Educational Need

AEN – Additional Educational Need

A child or young person has SEN/AEN if they have a learning difficulty or a disability that affects how they learn and requires provision in lessons.

Studio Six promotes equality for all students and employees and will endeavour to meet the SEN/AEN requirement of individuals where possible without discrimination.

The kinds of needs for which provision is made at Studio Six

Communication and interaction

Social and emotional health

Physical impairment including sight or hearing difficulties

Parents/carers of students they believe have specific needs must discuss these with the class teacher before enrolling to ensure we can support the student

We have specialist SEN classes please see our timetable for info
